

Please do not change the current Telephone Privacy Act. To reduce it will only serve to interrupt family meals, family quiet talks and time we get to spend together in our hectic lives. It has been so refreshing to not have to listen to sales pitches and telemarketers and I really don't want that to change. Thank you for listening.